CIWA Courses for Accreditation within Catholic Schools Term 3 2023

The Catholic Institute of Western Australia (CIWA) is a unique Catholic tertiary educational body, created by and accountable to the Conference of Catholic Bishops of Western Australia. The Catholic Institute is offering courses of study to teacher education students interested in completing the tertiary study component of Accreditation to Teach Religious Education (ATRE) or Accreditation for Teachers, Psychologists and non-teaching staff in Leadership roles in Catholic schools (ATP+NTL) to be employed in a Catholic school.

Accreditation to Teach Religious Education (ATRE)

University students wishing to teach in a Catholic early childhood centre or primary school must be Catholic and be able to teach Religious Education. They should do ATRE. Students who are Catholic and wish to teach Religious Education in a Catholic secondary school should also do ATRE.

Accreditation for Teachers, Psychologists & non-teaching Leaders (ATP+NTL)

University students wishing to teach in a Catholic secondary school but not teach Religious Education or are specialist teachers in other Catholic school settings should do ATP+NTL.

While these courses count towards accreditation with Catholic Education WA, they are NOT credited towards advanced standing in Teacher Education programs at universities.

The courses are available to students via an online only mode of study delivered over eight weeks. Online study is delivered through the CANVAS Learning Management System with recorded lectures and discussion boards with materials, tasks and assessments provided.
